

PROSPECT MACHINE PRODUCTS, INC.

January 24, 2021

Mission Statement

For over 70 years Prospect Machine Products has been a prime supplier of deep draw metal stampings to its customers throughout the United States and the world. Our success is founded on building long-term relationships with our customers starting with open and honest communication, establishing trust, and becoming a key team member in the success of our customers' products. We accomplish this priority by providing engineering and design assistance, high quality, and durable components at a fair price with on-time deliveries.

We continuously seek ways to improve our processes, foster the growth and initiative of all our team members, and maintain the highest standard of integrity in our commitment to the communities we are a part of. Our long history of our success attests to our mission.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Richard A. Laurenzi". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Richard A. Laurenzi

CEO, Chairman